Miss Leary's plans for the erection of a bronze statue of Columbus were announced.

The menu cards were red and gold, with Miss Leary's crest done in white. Her title of counters came from the Her title of countess came from the Vatican some years ago. The sherbet was served in tiny globes colored red, white and blue. The ice cream came in the dinner and the buffet which followed the reception and musicale.

Among those present at the dinner were Father Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. James R. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. V. Penfield and Mrs. Lawrence L. Gillespie.

Miss Myrtle Jessie Wood and Mr. William Roland Johnston were married Thursday, October 12, at 4 o'clock, at St. Margaret's Church, Connecticut avenue and Bancroft place, Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith officiating. Because of the very recent death of Mr. Johnston's father, only the immediate members of the two families were present. The bride was attended by Miss Ruby M. Johnston, sister of the groom, and the best man was Mr. Leonard P. Robinson. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore an embroidered white mull gown with a white picture hat. The flowers were white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a white net gown with yellow roses. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will be at home at the Woodward, Connecticut avenue four hours;

All are urgently requested to be present, that definite place and time for stated meetings may be arranged.

Miss Mazie Ailce Orbello and Dr. Harry Emmrich Simons were married last even-ing at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Orbello, by Rev. J. A. Smyth of St. Patrick's Church, in the presence of their relatives and a few personal friends. Miss Edith Orbello was her sister's maid of honor, and the bride was escorted by her father. Mr. Edmund Emmrich was best man. The bride wore white crepe meteor with pearl trimmings, and a tulle veil held with lilies of the valley. She carried a shower of bride roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of pale pink crepe meteor draped with marquisette of the same shade, trimmed with pearls. She wore a pearl ornamen in her hair and carried a shower of pin palms. ferns and white and pink roses palms, ferns and white and pink roses. A string orchestra played the wedding music, and for the reception following. Dr. Simons and his bride left later for a wedding trip north in their automobile. The bride's going-away gown was of dark brown corduroy with a poke bonnet of the same shade, and shoes and gloves to match. They will be at home after December 1 at the Airy View apartment house, 20th and Biltmore streets.

Mrs. A. L. Barber and her daughter, Mrs. Vance, are returning to their home, Belmont. by locomobile, from their cot-tage at Black Rock, Conn.

Rose Burndetta Fellinger was married to Mr. Walter Willard Hall at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, 8th and B streets southwest, at 6 o'clock last even ing, the date being the wedding anniversary of the groom's parents. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. Luther Frantz. Miss Florence Noack sang "Adoration" and "Oh, Believe Me," accompanied by Mr. Frank Howard with violin obligato. The wedding march was played by Mr. S. S. Freeman, org-anist of St. John's Church. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Fred Fellinger, wore a tallored suit of blue broadcloth, with a large picture hat of blue velvet and plumes, and carried white chrysanthemums.
